

GROUP 6: NORTHERN GHANA

Dean Pierre Dansereau was the Leader of the group, and was accompanied by the following: Henry Black (St. Francis Xavier), John Cartwright (Queen's), Joseph Collins (U.S.A.), Don Johnston (McGill), Gerard Monfette (Laval), Bill Montgomery (British Columbia), and Martin Robin (Manitoba). Mr. John Renner, a student at the University College of Ghana, acted as guide.

This group travelled the whole length of Ghana, from the extreme south, at Accra, to the extreme north into the French Territory of Haute-Volta. It was therefore possible to sample all the natural areas of the country and to observe the various patterns of land use in each different landscape.
