

Dear Bruce Roberts,

My wife and I are great admirers of your style: the openness and the freedom of your design are a great pleasure to be shared.

We have just received your communication, but are still lacking information on both cost and logistics.

Both of us are ninety years old, but in very good health. Nevertheless, ^{the} minor miscomforts of our age require adequate facilities and assured intimacy.

We are off ~~today~~ ^{tomorrow} for the Gaspé Peninsula where we expect to spend three weeks. Upon our return ~~we expect~~ ^{a friend will} ~~to~~ drive down to Mimiburg in order to reserve a room in a neighbouring hotel, as well as local transport to and from your place.
